

ENERGOPROJEKT ENERGODATA RECEIVED “DISCOBOLOS” AWARD FOR SOFTWARE PRODUCT FOR MANAGING TAX APPLICATIONS

Energoprojekt Energodata received “Discobolos” award for the year 2013 on December 23rd 2013, by JISA (Union of ICT Societies), Serbian organization connected with many domestic experts and respectable foreign organizations such as Council of European Professional Informatics Societies (CEPIS). Software products named “Porez+” for automation of tasks for tax applications is awarded as the winner in the financial area. Software products for other areas such as: Production and Project, Management, Social Activities, Health Care, Education, Services and Web Realization are also awarded.

“Porez+” is software product for complete automation of processes for creating and submitting of tax applications for middle and big companies. All needs for consolidation, processing and communications of electronic documents between Tax Administration and companies are realized in centralized manner. Product implementation is very simple since it can be connected on any of wide known ERP solutions such as : SAP, Oracle, Navision and other as source of information.